Wedding of Miss Ruth Johnston and Douglas E. Baldwin.

The San Francisco Chronicle of September 12 gives a detailed account of the wedding of Miss Ruth Johnston and Mr. Douglas E. Baldwin, both well known in Honolulu. Mrs. Bal-win attended Punahou Academy and was one of the most popular girls in the school. Douglas Baldwin is also a graduate of Punahou. The Chronicle says:

"Romance Begun in Punahou—Wedding Takes Place in St. Luke's Church."

"In the presence of relatives and a few close friends, Miss Ruth Carolyn Johnston became the bride of Douglas Elmer Baldwin in St. Luke's church at 11 o'clock last Wednesday morning. The impressive Episcopal wedding service was read by Rev. Edward Morgan of St. Luke's."

"The church was prettily decorated with pink roses, palms and Maryland roses. The altar was banked with the flowers, with a background of palms and green-growing things. The young bride looked beautiful in her robe of fluffy Georgeanne crepe fashioned over silk. The full skirt was made with a petal effect, and the bodice was of the crepe and silk with a dainty fall of real lace around the neck, and the corsage was ornamented with a garland of pearls."

"A large picture hat of turquoise blue velvet faced with pale pink satin and trimmed with a large rose completed the beautiful costume. A shower of lilies of the valley and white roses was carried."

"Miss Katherine Irvine was the maid of honor. She was attired in a crepe de chine frock in the newest shade of blue and carried an armful of American Beauty roses."

"The bride was given into the future keeping of her husband by her mother, Mrs. Harry James Johnston, who looked handsome in a gown of blue charmeuse, with embellishments of rose point lace."

"After the ceremony the party motored to the Cliff Hotel, where the wedding breakfast was served in the west-banquet room. The decorations were carried out in white roses, as paraphs fern and white tulips."

"The young couple have gone to Santa Barbara for their honeymoon, and in October they will sail for their future home in the Hawaiian Islands."

"Douglas Baldwin is assistant manager of the Makaweli plantation on Mau, one of the largest sugar plantations on the islands. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Baldwin and a cousin of Wallace Alexander of Piedmont; of Frank Baldwin, who married Miss Edith Kittredge of this city, and of Harry Baldwin."

"The bride is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Johnston and the late Harry James Johnston of Honolulu. For the last few years Mrs. Johnston and her daughters have made their home in San Francisco."

"Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Baldwin were students at Punahou College, where their romance began. After leaving Punahou Miss Johnston made her debut in Honolulu, where she was a universal favorite. She has two sisters, Misses Grace and Sybil Johnston."

"Is Jack Spreckels' Romance Wrecked?"

"Is Jack Spreckels' romance wrecked?" is the question being asked by many of the young man's friends. For close upon the announcement that a marriage license had been granted for Jack and Miss Sidi Wirt has come the word that she is deeply interested in her stage career begun about a year ago. The San Francisco News Letter says:

"Rumor has it that Jack Spreckels and the beautiful young girl who traces her ancestry back to an Egyptian princess, have shipwrecked their romance, which does not surprise the mariners who know Jack best, and picked off his course on the heart's chart. His interest in her began to flame a little over a year ago, when he sent her East to study for the stage. Art enthralls him, and any one with promising artistic abilities readily wins his support. Even the jealous friends of Jack's admitted that the young lady had beauty, ability, two attractions which he has always affirmed should be helped to attainments in artistic endeavor. Letters from New York glowingly described her rapid advances under the tuition of expert instructors, and Jack was routinely congratulated on sincerely doing an excellent and disinterested piece of work. When she came back from New York a few months ago and was interviewed—a change came over the hopes of the sponsor regarding the development of any unusual artistic results in stage success, commensurate with the costs."

"One version of the affair is that the musician who coached her in her dancing lessons and frequently played the accompaniment to her Lole Faller flights, is still accompanying her on excursions not always set to music.
Another version is that Jack has himself wandered into other fields and pursues new. Accept whatever version you may; their romance, should the tea-cup mongers dub it as such, has palpably cooled, and is rapidly reaching frigidity, neither has dated a heart, much less broken one."

Madame Lester Returning.

Madame M. Lester, who so greatly pleased patrons of the Moana hotel dances in July last with exhibitions of the new steps, is returning shortly to Honolulu to organize a school of dancing, bringing with her as partner, a noted dancer of New York, a graduate of the Vernon Castle and Challiff schools. Both Madame Lester and her partner are certified teachers and society people may look for many innovations the coming season. Among one of the new dances to be taught will be the black and white trot, which has been greatly used at the smart functions at Newport and Narragansett during the summer. Madame Lester has for nine years conducted in Cleveland, B. C. a large and most exclusive dancing academy, but owing to war conditions dancing in Canada for the present is somewhat neglected, therefore allowing Madame Lester to leave her schools with capable assistants and devote a few months of each season to Honolulu. All of the newest and most popular dances of New York, Chicago and San Francisco will be taught, and a new interest will be created here in this most delightful of pastimes. Madame Lester expects to reach here about the first of October.

What An Army Girl is Doing.

Col. and Mrs. John T. Knight's daughter, Miss Margaret Knight, has entered on a practical career. She has opened a shop in Manila and is making a success as a vendor of embroideries and curios of the Orient."

Col. Knight was stationed at Fort Mason last season and Miss Knight was one of the most popular girls in the service set here and was much entertained in society. She is the granddaughter of Gen. S. B. M. Young, who was for several years in command of the department of the Pacific, with headquarters at Fort Mason.

It is quite the fashion to buy souvenirs at Miss Young's shop, which society in Manila has generously approved.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter and their three children, the Misses Elizabeth and Phoebe Carter and Master Bobby Carter were among the departing passengers in the Matsonia this morning. The Carters are en route to Boston where they will reside for the next nine months. Miss Elizabeth Carter made her debut in the early part of the summer and Miss Phoebe Carter will probably come out next year. The younger Miss Carter will take a course in one of the select finishing schools of the East.

The two Carter girls this summer have entertained extensively at their home in Nuuanu and their summer home at Kailua.

✓ Mrs. Charles Bromwell and her daughter, Mildred, left this morning in the Matsonia for the states. After visiting the exposition, Mrs. Bromwell and her daughter will depart for Virginia, where Miss Mildred will enter school. The school is a most select one, being limited to thirty girls and is patronized by a number of well known women of New York, among them being Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mrs.

Bromwell will visit in Boston, New York, Chicago and other places before returning to Hawaii, which she expects to do in late December.

Comdr. Frederick N. Freeman has arrived from the South and will be on duty here for a while as commander of the torpedo destroyer and submarine flotilla. Before he left Coronado he was tendered a farewell dinner by the wardroom officers of the U. S. S. Colorado. Mrs. Freeman is expected from Honolulu, where she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
John D. Spreckels on their yacht Ve-netia.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Letters have been received from the Philippine Islands announcing the birth of a daughter to Capt. and Mrs.
Pierce A. Murphy. The little girl will be called Jane. Capt. and Mrs. Murphy are the brother and sister-in-law of Capt. John Burke Murphy of Fort Mason, and they were formerly stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco. They have been in Manila a little more than a year.—San Francisco Chronicle.

A number of friends of Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell were at the pier Tuesday to bid them bon voyage as they sailed for Honolulu. Their two daughters, Mrs. Clinton and Mrs. Williams, have also left for their homes.
Among those who entertained for them while in this city were Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sprague and Lieut. and Mrs. James Howell.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwartz and their two daughters, Henrietta and Josephine, departed this morning in the Matsonia after a three months' visit in the islands. The Schwartzs have been guests at the Moana hotel and during their sojourn have been delightfully entertained. Their home is now in San Francisco, but they will spend the winter in New York and may return to Honolulu again next summer.

Everett Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Raymond Brown, departed in the Ma-tsonia this morning en route to California where he will enter Thatcher school for boys. The school is limited to twenty members, four of whom are Honolulu boys.

✓ Miss Ethel Glade, who has been visiting her cousin, the Misses von Holt, this summer, was numbered among the outgoing passengers in the Ma-tsonia this morning. Miss Glade during her brief visit has added many to her list of friendships. It is sincerely hoped that she may be persuaded to come this way again.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spaulding, Jr., of Chicago who have spent the past two weeks in Honolulu, departed in the Matsonia this morning for California, where they will remain for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding will then return to their home. The noted couple will return to Honolulu to spend a month of the winter of 1917.

Their many friends will be glad to hear that Lieut. and Mrs. Norman Bates (Miss Helen Sargent) will reside in San Francisco until December.
Lieut. Bates has just received orders to go on duty at the exposition. They have taken an attractive apartment at Sutter and Jones streets.—San Francisco Chronicle.

John E. Baird and Mrs. Baird, with a party of friends, who recently returned from the Hawaiian Islands, where Baird has large plantation interests, are at the Hotel Stewart. After a motor tour of Southern California the party will return to Philadelphia.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, wife of Senator Chillingworth of this city, was among the departing passengers in the Matsonia. Mrs. Chillingworth will visit the exposition. She expects to be gone several months.

Lieut. and Mary Henry Kent Hewitt are reeling over the arrival of a baby girl. The little one will be named Florida Hunt after her mother. The Hewitts are residing at Annapolis.— San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. William Daniel left Honolulu this week for the volcano to spend a couple of months. She will be joined later by Dr. William Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Petersen of Honolulu are here visiting Mrs. H. A.
Petersen.—Watsonville, Cal. Pajaronian.

STOUT WOMEN FAVORED HERE

The Jeffs Fashion Co., 302-303-318 Hawaiian Trust building, is making a specialty of fitting the stout woman in dresses both for morning and afternoon wear.

Among the many things worthy of note appear new models in separate skirts, also black and white crepe de chine, also black silk poplin, navy blue gaberdine and wool serges.

Women who have experienced difficulty in obtaining just what they want in dress, owing to their unusual size, will find it well worth their while to visit these new and up-to-date parlors, where satisfaction is a matter of course.—(adv.)

Jewelers and Silversmiths

Numerous affairs are being planned. Col. and Mrs. Thomas Rees, at their year and has been stationed with the for Lieut. Thomas H. Rees, Jr., U. S. home on Locust street. Lieut. Rees, 9th Cavalry on the Texas border.
A., who is the guest of his parents, was graduated from West Point last. San Francisco Chronicle.

B.F. Ehlers & Co.
HONOLULU
CORSETS

Special Gossard corsets for informal and evening wear in the new Fall styles are now being shown. These corsets come in different materials, some of them being of a very light weight batiste, while others are made up in borche, silk and figured batiste. An open work net material shown in one of the new models is most suitable for this climate.

For the school girl we advise our new Junior or Misses' corset which comes in a light weight material, the boning being very flexible, giving absolute freedom of movement to the growing girl.

Brassieres—another necessity—are also being shown in a wide assortment of styles for the small, medium and full bust figures.
